
Ways to Support The Historic Lyric Theatre

There are many ways to be part of what we are building here. Every contribution, big or small, helps preserve this historic space and expand our reach in the community.

The Historic Lyric Theatre is a nationally recognized cultural landmark in Lexington's East End, proudly serving Lexington and the broader Central Kentucky community. For generations, this stage has hosted the artists, ideas, and gatherings that bring our community together, and your support helps ensure it remains a home for culture, connection, and opportunity for years to come.
